Who's using the app?

- people who drive near train tracks
- Working people near trains
- Students that live near train tracks
- People that want to know if they'll be occupied by a train
- Commuters on the way to class
- people who walk near train tracks
- people that are late to their destinations
- people who want to see trains?
- Engineers working near trains

Features

- Sound notifications?
- alternate routes
- list of trains and routes
- save user routes
- user feedback
- GPS?
- a way to put in your designated location and time of departure and see if there will be any trains that will stop you
- Pinning locations of trains or designated area
- cute elevator music when stuck by the train
- tell how long train will be
- different routes for walkers vs drivers
- ability to select only certain train notifications vs all

Marketing

- Premium
- flyers? social media? how do people find us
- "Refer 5-10 people for premium"
- Making cute icons for trains (collectables)
- Currency system for a reward?

Interface

- If or use of ads?
- background and foreground usability
- Cute train logo to be easily spot
- Clickable Maps
- full screen notif vs pop up vs silent
- Interactable pop up to ask if the train has past
- favoriting your favorite route

Potential Problems

- how do we insure accurate train locations/track delays
- location privacy
- how do we get train location info?
- user submitted updates?
- notification sent too late
- Website or App?
- notifies even after train is gone
- Free or purchasable?